ALUMNI FUND . . . FINAL REPORT

$30,000 GOALS 15% Participation

The Alumni Fund of Lycoming College closed its books for the year 1959-1960 on June 30. In the fall of 1959 the Alumni Fund Chairman, Henry Birkenstock, announced as goals a Fund total of $30,000 with at least 15% Participation of the Alumni. A Progress Report in the April issue of the Newsletter suggested that the goal would only be reached through the receipt of some large contributions.

$56,341.37 GRAND TOTAL

The Alumni Fund Chairman, Group Leaders, and Class Agents can sit back with justified pride knowing that the goal of $30,000 was greatly exceeded. In fact, even without the largest gift of $25,000 the goal would have been met. The final tally indicates 518 alumni poured a grand total of $56,341.37 into the Alumni Fund. The final two months of the fund year saw more than $8,000 received. If there be a cloud on the horizon to cause any concern whatsoever, it would be the realization that these contributions came from only 11.71% of the Alumni. Nevertheless this is a significant improvement over the 7.2% of the Alumni who supported the Fund last year.

Many excellent reasons were given during the past year why you should make a contribution to the Alumni Fund. However, no reasons were forthcoming indicating the necessity of an Alumni Fund Report. Edison B. Allen, Coordinator of the Tulane Alumni Fund, has composed a bit of doggerel verse which may reflect the feelings of some alumni insofar as the need for such reports is concerned.

GIVING REPORTS

Giving reports are an awful bore—
Who needs them?
Like rail timetables and Eskimo lore,
Who reads them?
Costly to mail, to plan and to print,
Statistics and names to scan with a squint—
A perfect device for one who is bent
On quick slumber.

Giving reports waste many a tree—
Save our timber!
Figures and facts leave you and me
Dazed and limber.
The text is drab, the pitch is the same
The premise is vague, the conclusion is lame—
And how about this: "You misspelled my name!
I should sue you!"

Giving reports are a monstrous bother—
Let's stop them.
Instead of all this, I'd truly much rather
Just drop them.
But how do we reach the daughters and sons
Who gave us their hundreds, twenties and ones?
Will they still give (unless we use guns)?
Now pray tell me!

Yes, giving reports are a terrible pain—
Yet we need them.
Like stamp catalogs, or "How to Make Rain"
Someone will read them.
And that "Someone" Alumnus is likely the kind
Who gives from his heart, but also his mind.
Who with our school's future is closely aligned.
WE CAN'T LOSE HIM!

HOMEcoming, OCTOBER 15, 1960

HOMEcoming WEEKEND begins with the President's Reception on Friday evening, October 14. Continuing the practice begun last year, it will be held in the Burchfield Lounge of the Student Activities Building at 8:00. Alumni will be guests of the College at the Alumni Luncheon Saturday noon.

Edinboro State College, a new gridiron foe, will be the Lycoming Warriors' football opponent Saturday afternoon at 1:30. Immediately following the football game will be a cider and doughnut party in the Student Activities Building. About 1:30 p. m. President Wertz will meet with alumni in another "fireside chat" which proved so popular last year. The Homecoming Dance will feature the Maynard Ferguson Band and will begin at 9:00 p. m.
